Emergency Management

Copyright release

All articles submitted to the Australian Journal of Emergency Management, must include a copy of this document, filled in and signed by all authors.

Non-exclusive licence

The article titled: _____

(the 'Article') is herewith submitted for publication in the Australian Journal of Emergency Management (AJEM).

I (We), as author(s) ('Author') hereby grant to the Attorney-General's Department, Commonwealth of Australia (the Department) a perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, world-wide, non-exclusive licence to:

- Publish, use, communicate, adapt and reproduce the Article in whole or in part, including print, electronic and digital forms, provided that the Author's copyright in the Article is acknowledged.
- Create adaptations, summaries or extracts of the Article or other derivative works based on the Article.
- Send abstracts and complete versions of the Article to any person or organisation for further publication.
- Sub-licence all such rights to others.

Publisher

AJEM is published by the Australian Institute for Disaster Resilience (AIDR) on behalf of the Department.
AIDR is a consortium of the Australasian Fire and Emergency Service Authorities Council (AFAC), the Australian Red Cross and the Bushfire & Natural Hazards CRC.

Publication policy

All Articles in AJEM are published under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial (CC BY-NC 4.0) licence that allows reuse, subject only to the use being non-commercial and to the Article being fully attributed (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0>).
AIDR makes all AJEM Articles freely available on the Australian Disaster Resilience Knowledge Hub from the date of publication. The Creative Commons copyright statement appears in the Journal, and as a footnote at the end of individual downloadable Articles in the following form:

"This is an open access Article distributed in accordance with the Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial (CC BY-NC 4.0) license, which permits others to distribute, remix, adapt, build upon this work non-commercially, and license their derivative works on different terms, provided the original work is properly cited and the use is non-commercial. See: http:// creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0."

Acknowledgements by Author

The Author acknowledges that the Department has the right to edit the submitted Article in accordance with the Australian Government Publishing Services style manual or any other style manual determined by AIDR.
Substantial content edits will be referred to the Author before publication.

Warranties

The Author warrants that:

- He/she is the sole owner of the Article and has full right and title to copyright in the Article.
- The Article is not copied wholly or substantially from any other work or material.
- He/she has not entered into any agreement or arrangement involving the sale, mortgage, pledge, granting of options or any other rights over his/her interest in the copyright in the Article.
- The mere use and exercise of copyright in the Article by the Department or any licensee or sub-licensee of the Department will not infringe any copyright or similar or other intellectual property rights of any person, nor give rise to payment by the Department or any licensee or sub-licensee of the Department or any royalty to any third party or to any liability to pay compensation.
- Neither the execution of the Agreement nor the performance by the Author of his/her obligations will cause the Author to be in breach of any agreement to which he/she is a party or is subject.

Australian Journal of Emergency Management

Copyright release

All articles submitted to the Australian Journal of Emergency Management, must include a copy of this document, filled in and signed by all authors.

The Author indemnifies the Department against any claim, loss, liability, cost or expense (including legal expenses on a solicitor and own party basis) which may be incurred or sustained by the Department as a result of any breach of the warranties given in this Clause.

Indemnity

If the Department or any licensee or sub-licensee of the Department is required to make a payment by way of damages to a third party as a result of the Author breaching the copyright of the third party in the course of preparing the Article, the Author hereby agrees to indemnify the Department or any licensee or sub-licensee of the Department in full in respect of the amount paid by the Department or any licensee or sub-licensee of the Department to the third party, together with any costs incurred by the Department or any licensee or sub-licensee of the Department.

No prior representations

This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties in connection with it.

This Agreement is to be read in conjunction with the AJEM Editorial Policy and forms the entire policy.

Amendment

No amendment or variation of this Agreement is valid or binding on a party unless made in writing and executed by all parties.

Expiration of agreement

If the Department rejects the Article for publication or has not published the Article in the AJEM in accordance with this Agreement within twelve months after the date of this Agreement, all licences of rights to the Department as set out in this Agreement cease.

Mutual obligation

The Author will respond to the editor of the AJEM in a timely manner to editorial requests.

Governing law

The laws applicable in the Australian Capital Territory of Australia govern this Agreement and the parties irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that Territory.
