Reducing Systemic Climate and Disaster Risk for a Resilient and Prosperous Australia

"Where and how we place ourselves on the landscape really does matter."

Momentum is Building

The risk landscape is changing quickly and we need to break from business as usual.

- Natural hazards are more frequent and intense
- Demand is growing to address financial impacts of a changing climate
- People, livelihoods and assets are more exposed and vulnerable
- Essential services are increasingly hyper-connected
- Disaster impacts are long-term and complex
- Costs of disasters are growing
- Stability of natural, social and economic systems can no longer be taken for granted

Where we are now

Where we need to be

We are Aspiring Towards

A systems and values-based mindset reduces climate and disaster risks.

- Risk-informed sustainable development
- Substantial reduction in loss and harm
- Successfully living with natural hazards and a changing climate
- Reduced intergenerational vulnerability
- Wellbeing, trust and confidence
